Faubus Plans $150 Million Bond Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that if his road program involves a $150 million bond issue it will include funds for counties, cities and additional work on the state secondary road system.

Faubus still would not say definitely that he will call a special legislative session to consider the road program, but the tone with which he talked about it indicated that a special session is imminent.

Faubus confirmed that the bond issue talk is centered around a figure of $150 million. This amount was mentioned by Capitol sources which said Thursday that the governor is considering a one cent per gallon increase in the gasoline tax to finance a road construction bond issue.

Faubus also confirmed that the money for cities and counties would be provided on some kind of matching basis but he said that the program must not be so expensive that the cities and counties can't afford it as they cannot afford the present federal government matching program.

Faubus refused again to explain why he believes the matter can be better handled in a special session.

"I won't explain that now," he said. "Maybe I won't call a special session and then I won't have to."

The governor said he has scheduled a series of conferences this weekend with "those who would be affected by his road program and that he will not make up his mind until next week about calling the special session."

He said he had never had the kind of pressure he is getting now for road construction.

"And you must remember that I was highway commissioner 15 years ago when practically every road in Arkansas was gravel," he said.

The sources, who asked to not be identified, said the tax-bond program is the most likely one to be submitted to a special legislative session.

Capitol observers believed a special session to be probable, with Dec. 15-16 the likely starting date. A later session would run into the Christmas holidays, the Cotton Bowl Game or the start of the regular session Jan. 11.

Faubus said Thursday that road construction would be a likely topic for a special session, but he said any proposed program would involve both county roads and city streets.

A tax increase would require a three-fourths majority vote in the legislature. A bond proposal can be placed on the ballot with a majority vote in the legislature. The law requires that any general obligation bond issue be put to public vote.

The last state bond proposal—a $60 million issue for institutional construction—was turned down by Arkansas voters by a two to one majority in June 1961.

Sources said the gasoline tax being considered would be enacted for six years with proceeds pledged to debt service on the new bond issue. At the end of six years the tax would be allowed to expire and debt service would be handled from $7 million in highway revenues which now are pledged to retirement of the 1941 Highway Refunding Bonds. The unpaid balance of the 1941 bond issue, $48,701,000, is not scheduled to be retired until April 1972.

A spokesman said, however, that there is enough money in a bond cushion fund to permit retirement of all bonds in October 1970.

Special Services at SS Assembly

Three nights of special revival services will be held at Southside Assembly Friday, Saturday and Sunday with Clarence Chouchin of Memphis bringing the messages. The services, including singing, will be held at 7:30 p.m. each night, according to the pastor, the Rev. S. Joseph Geno.

Republican Claims Victory in Logan

PARIS, Ark. (AP) — Custer Tritt amended his circuit court suit Thursday saying he should have won the Nov. 3 Logan County judge's race by 395 votes.

Tritt, a Republican, was the winner in the first ballot count but a recount gave the victory to incumbent Democrat Perry Mikles.

The suit alleges election irregularities and asks that Tritt be declared the winner.

Mikles has until Dec. 13 to answer the suit.

Judge Carl Creekmore has ordered county officials to make absentee ballot applications and poll tax lists available to Tritt's investigators.

Farm Bureau Officials Are Elected

The Hempstead County Farm Bureau held one of its most important meetings of the year last night according to President Autrey Wilson. The organization elected officers, committees and commodity members for the coming year.

Newly elected officers are President, Lester Kent; Vice President, Troy Burson; Secretary, Mrs. Cordes Drake and Treasurer, Thurman Ridling.

The National Affairs committee for 1965 is composed of Chairman, Moss Rowe; Cordes Drake, R. B. Arnold, Thurman Ridling and William Schooley.

N. B. Coleman was elected as chairman of the State Legislative Committee Edwin Evans and Troy Burson were also named to the committee.

Commodity members were elected as follows: Livestock Edwin Evans; Dairy, Autrey Wilson; Poultry, Cordes Drake; Forestry, Monroe Samuel; Field Crops, William Schooley. Troy Burson was named as chairman of the program committee.

U.S., Russia Seek Cold War Solution

By LEWIS GULICK

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union moved today toward a new search for cold war solutions after avoiding — at least for the time being — a head-on fight over U.N. finances.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk arranged a third meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko Saturday and left open the possibility of further talks next week.

These are the first high-level U.S.-Soviet discussions since the new regime took over in Moscow, and the two Rusk-Gromyko sessions earlier this week focused on the immediate crisis over Soviet arrears on U.N. dues.

Rusk was reported ready now to canvass with Gromyko the possibilities for agreement on other East-West problems ranging from disarmament to trade.

The U.S. assessment is that the Soviet government is still under committee rule and thus not likely to make radical policy changes. In contrast to Moscow's currently harsh propaganda, Gromyko in speaking privately to Rusk was said to have left out charges against U.S. policy in the Congo and Viet Nam.

American sources said Gromyko was interested in broadening the 1963 nuclear test ban. France and Red China have refused to join, and there seems to be little Washington or Moscow can do about that. However, Rusk and Gromyko were said to agree that the possibility of extending the ban to underground explosions — now exempt — could be explored in technical talks at the Geneva disarmament conference.

The U.N. financial argument is on a back burner and the simmering question is: How much will the Soviets have to pay — and in what manner will they pay — to escape losing their vote in the General Assembly for not paying their assessments for U.N. peacekeeping operations in the Congo and the Middle East?

The United States and the Soviet Union have tossed this problem to Secretary-General U Thant.

Chamber Officials Named

New officers for 1965 were elected at the regular Chamber of Commerce meeting on Thursday evening at the new office on West Third Street. Those elected were Eugene White, President; W. L. Tate, 1st Vice President; not present, E. P. Young Jr., 2nd Vice President and Tom Ed Hays, Treasurer.

Other items of business discussed were plans for an "Open House" at the new Chamber Building. No date was set pending the arrival of the balance of the furnishings but it was suggested that a day sometime between Christmas and January 1st might be an appropriate time. Haskell Jones was named to head up the committee for this project.

Retiring president, Bill Gunter, accepted the responsibility of heading up a project to build a planter across a part of the front of the new building for greenery and flowers. A local Garden Club has offered to be responsible for the planting and caring for this project once it is built.

Steve Bader was named chairman of a project to place a banner across Highway 67 in downtown Hope welcoming Razorback Football Fans who will be passing through our town on their way to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on New Year's Day.

Other items pertaining to activities scheduled to start in the new year were discussed, one of which was to change the monthly meetings to Chamber of Commerce meetings instead of Board Meetings. With larger facilities now available it was suggested that any Chamber members be invited and urged to attend these meetings.

Plant Dedication Draws Notables

MELBOURNE, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and about 100 other persons were here Thursday for the dedication of Arkansas Aircraft Assemblies, Inc.

The firm, located in a remote wooded area nearby, would make doors for airplanes. It has a contract with Douglas Aircraft Co. of Long Beach, Calif.

The plant was built and equipped at a cost of $60,000. It is a metal building resembling a quonset hut that has 6,000 square feet of floor space.

Mills said the plant gives Arkansians what they want—jobs. "Our people are interested in jobs," he said. "If you give them one, they will make that job secure."

First Baptist Plans Season of Prayer

Members of First Baptist Church will observe the Season of Prayer for Foreign Missions and in gathering of the Lottie Moon Christmas offering during the week of Dec. 6-13.

Each day at 2 p.m. at the Church, the Woman's Missionary Society will present programs with the theme, "Worship Christ the King." Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the film, "Who Follows the King" will be shown.

The prayer room at the Church will be open all day on Friday, Dec. 11. Everyone is urged to attend these programs and make Christmas offerings.

UA Speaker Policy to Be Decided

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas Senate-Council, a faculty group, decided Thursday after a reportedly lively discussion, to study the university's policy on the use of its facilities by speakers from off the campus.

Dr. David W. Mullins, university president and chairman of the council, appointed a committee to study the situation and work out a new policy, sources said.

The subject arose recently when the university denied its facilities for a public speech by a representative of Bulgaria, a Communist nation.

The Student Senate has been critical of that decision.

The Students' Speakers Policy Revision Committee met Thursday night and the 18 members split into committees to (1) study university policy on speakers and (2) to keep students interested in the situation.

(3) to correspond with other colleges about their experiences, (4) to study the possibility of establishing a regular session to air student views, and (5) to provide facilities for speakers.

Blonde Beauty Enters Baker Case Hearing

By WILBUR MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators investigating an alleged political payoff shift sights today to question a witness Republicans once wanted to ask about the role a German beauty played in the Bobby Baker case.

Paul Aguirre, who has business interests in Puerto Rico, was scheduled among the opening witnesses on what could be the windup day of this round of the Senate Rules Committee investigation.

In a minority report filed after the committee's first hearings into the outside business activities of Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats, the Republican members said: "The minority unsuccessfully fought to have Mr. Paul Aguirre called as a witness."

"Aguirre could have been asked what part Ellen Rometsch, or other like individuals, had in the promotion of Baker's financial interests or dealings with government officials, government contracts, and others."

"He could have been asked what interests Baker had, or sought to acquire for himself or others, in housing, gambling concessions, and other enterprises in the Caribbean area."

Mrs. Rometsch is the former wife of a soldier once attached to the West German Embassy here. She was a hostess in a luncheon club in which Baker was interested. She has returned to Europe.

Seven other witnesses were scheduled today, including Milton L. Haut, who once made out income tax returns for Baker and Don B. Reynolds.

Reynolds has testified he was the "bag man" for Baker and Philadelphia contractor Matthew H. McCloskey, in a deal to siphon $25,000 into the 1960 Democratic campaign fund from the McCloskey firm's contract to build the District of Columbia stadium.

McCloskey, former ambassador to Ireland and Democratic fund raiser, testified he knew nothing about such a deal.

Testimony Thursday was interrupted by a shouting match between Lennox P. McLendon, special committee counsel, and Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del. Williams triggered this round of the Baker investigation by charging last September in a Senate speech there had been a political payoff.

After Thursday's flareup, Williams stalked out of the hearings and said he wouldn't be back.

The Delaware senator is not a member of the committee, but has been advising Republican members in the often politically tinged and frequently stormy hearings.

It was clear to him, Williams said, "my own assistance is no longer wanted" in the probe. He termed it regrettable his "veracity and integrity" had been challenged in the clash with McLendon.

The tiff started when Williams said he had told McLendon about additional government contracts the McCloskey company handled, but claimed McLendon said he was not interested in them unless it involved Baker and other figures in the current probe.

McLendon said Williams had not talked to him about this, and accused Williams of making "absolutely, unalterably untrue statements."

Williams later charged "I have had my integrity challenged twice. I overlooked it the first time. I always give a man the second opportunity. But no man gets the third opportunity to call me a liar." He added: "My veracity and integrity were challenged by this committee."

Baker was called before the committee on Wednesday but refused to answer any questions about his role in the alleged payoff.

Snow, Sleet Spread in All Sections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stormy weather, with snow, sleet, rain and strong winds, swept nearly all sections of the nation today, continuing the climatic pattern of the past several days.

Below zero cold again stung northern Midwest states. It was 19 below in North Dakota.

The snow, sleet and gusty winds raked broad areas from New England northern New York State into Idaho.

Driving conditions in most of the states hit by snow and sleet were hazardous and warnings were issued by Weather Bureau. The bureau also posted heavy snow warnings in Midwest areas, already hit by falls up to a half foot or more this week.

The heaviest snow fell in the central part of the nation covering areas in Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Iowa, with warnings of heavy amounts in northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and the southern third of Lower Michigan.

A wind-blown snowstorm whipped south central areas Thursday, dumping nearly a foot of snow in Englewood and Elkhart, Kan., and Guyton, Okla. Rain and sleet slickened streets and highways southeast of the snow zone.

More than five inches of rain drenched Tallahassee, Fla., in a six-hour period. Fairly heavy rain doused wide areas in the Lower Mississippi and Lower Ohio Valleys.

Total of 21 Involved in Triple Slaying

By MIKE SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — The FBI arrested 16 Mississippians, including Neshoba County's sheriff and his deputy, today in connection with the midsummer slayings of three civil rights workers here.

Federal agents in trench coats took Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 37, and Deputy Sheriff Cecil Price, 27, into custody at their office a few minutes before 9 a.m. Rainey and Price, dressed in their khaki uniforms, surrendered quietly and removed their revolvers.

Other FBI agents fanned over this east central Mississippi town picking up other men. Still others were arrested at nearby Meridian.

In Washington, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said 21 men altogether have been named in criminal charges in connection with the deaths last June of Andrew Goodman and Michael Schwerner, two white New Yorkers; and James Chaney, a Negro from Meridian.

Hoover said 19 were charged with conspiring to interfere with federal rights and the other two, with being accessories after the fact of a crime.

The FBI said its information would be made available to state authorities for possible murder warrants.

Deputy Price was the last person to acknowledge seeing the trio alive on June 21 and was one of those who helped remove their bodies from a giant earthen dam near here on Aug. 4.

Among others arrested here were Herman Tucker, foreman of the construction crew at the earthen dam; James E. Jordan, a construction worker; and Jerry Sharp, a used car dealer. The scene at the courthouse was tense as FBI agents arrived. Rainey and Price were out on a call. The FBI, while waiting, attracted a crowd of curious, numbering about 100. No one in the crowd spoke to the FBI.

The crowd got angry after the FBI departed with the arrested men. Several bystanders threatened newsmen and photographers, and one pulled a knife on AP photographer Jack Thornell.

Golden Age Club Holds Meeting

Lon Coats presided over the business meeting at the Dec. 3 meeting of the Golden Age Club at the Youth Center. Mrs. T.L. Smith read the minutes and roll call.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Myrtle Vaughn and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. J. B. Cearly read a poem and Mrs. J. W. Graham won the door prize.

Due to bad weather the election of officers was postponed until the first meeting in January. All members and visitors are urged to attend the Christmas luncheon at 12 noon on Dec. 17. Everyone is asked to bring a covered dish and a present for the Christmas tree.

After refreshments were served Mr. Whitten led the dismissal prayer.

Total of 21

arrested or charged as:
Bernard L. Akin, 50, a Meridian salesman; Earl B. Akin, 52,
a Meridian trailer salesman;
Jimmy Arledge, 27, a Meridian truck driver; Horace D. Barnette, 25, a salesman formerly of Meridian; Travis M. Barnette, 36, part-owner and operator of a Meridian garage.
Also, Otha Neal Burkes, 71, a Philadelphia Police Department
patrolman; Olen L. Burrage, 34, a trucking company operator in Philadelphia; James T. Harris,
30, a Meridian truck driver;
Frank J. Herndon, 46, who runs a drive-in restaurant in Meridian; Tommy A. Horne, 28, of Meridian, owner of a plumbing firm in Bonita, Miss.

Also Edgar Ray Killen, 39, a minister, farmer and sawmill operator in Union; Billy Wayne Posey, 28, of Philadelphia, operator of a Williamsville service station; Alton Wayne Roberts, 26, a Meridian salesman.
Also Jimmy Snowden, 31, a Meridian truck driver; Jimmy Lee Townsend, 17, of Philadelphia, a service station attendant at Williamsville; and Oliver R. Warner Jr., 54, a Meridian grocery store operator.

At the time of the FBI announcement, those listed as still at large were Horace D. Barnette, Otha Neal Burkes and Tommy A. Horne.
The FBI refused to say where the arrested men were being taken. It was thought they would be taken to Meridian for arrangement.

It was a sad dreary, dismal day with heavy overcast as the arrests—which had been expected—came swiftly.
Earl Akin and Horne, the FBI said, were charged with mis-prision of a felony, a federal offense that carries a maximum penalty of three years in prison and a $500 fine.

The 19 others were charged in an FBI complaint with conspiring "to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate (Schwerner, Chaney and Goodman; in the free exercise and enjoyment of rights secured to them by the Constitution and laws of the United States."

The FBI complaint said it was part of the conspiracy for Deputy Sheriff Price, "acting under the color of his office," to arrest the three without legal cause.
Under the conspiracy, it was charged, Price would release them from custody and he and other conspirators would intercept the three "shortly after they departed from Philadelphia, Miss., by automobile and would threaten, assault, shoot and kill them."

Conviction under this federal charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison or a $5,000 fine.
In some previous cases, the Justice Department has withheld prosecution on federal civil rights charges when local authorities have moved to prosecute on local charges—in this case murder.

Hoover's announcement said FBI agents "frequently encountered hostility and resentment on the part of some individuals contacted during the investigation." But he said Mississippi
Gov. Paul B. Johnson, the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol
"and other responsible citizens of that state" had rendered outstanding cooperation.

Hoover said the arrest of the 21 will bring to 49 the number of arrests in Mississippi in the past 10 weeks as a result of FBI investigations of civil rights violations.
The arrested men will be taken before U.S. Commissioner Esther Carter, in Jackson, Miss.
It is understood that the recommended bond for the 19 charged with the main offense will be $20,000 to $25,000; for the others, about $5,000.

Crash Fatal to Tyronza Man

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP)—
Edward M. Austin, 18, of Tyronza, died Thursday night when his car went out of control, ran off U.S. 63 and crashed into a ditch, pitching Austin out and then flipping onto him.
State Trooper Marvin Cook said the accident, on a rainy highway, happened about three miles south of here.
Austin, traveling alone, was attempting to pass another car,
Cook said.

Weather

drizzle, still faces a cold, cloudy weekend, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.
Mostly cloudy and colder
weather, with some light drizzle or freezing drizzle in the north portions, were predicted for tonight. Light snow was reported at Fort Smith early today.

The bureau said light snow is likely in Western Arkansas Saturday afternoon or evening.
Cloudiness will increase Saturday, the bureau said, and the outlook for Sunday is for more cloudy, cold weather.
Overnight low readings in the 20s northwest to 30 degrees southeast were forecast.

Maximum readings Thursday ranged from 32 degrees at Harrison to 56 degrees at El Dorado. Overnight low readings ranged from 29 degrees at Fayetteville to 44 degrees at Pine Bluff.
The passage of a cold front
through the state Thursday brought heavy rains.
Camden had two inches during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a. m. today, backed up by 3.07 inches during the similar period
Thursday. Texarkana had 1.63 inches, Memphis and Little Rock each 1.58, Pine Bluff 1.30, Walnut Ridge 1.27 and El Dorado 1.02.

Forecasts:
ARKANSAS — Mostly cloudy
and cool tonight with some light drizzle or freezing drizzle north portion and light rain or drizzle south through Saturday. Occasional light snow likely northwest portion Saturday afternoon or evening. Low tonight 20s northwest to upper 30s southeast.

High Saturday 30s northwest to 40s southeast.

LOUISIANA — Mostly cloudy and rather cold through Saturday. Low tonight 30 to 36 north portion and 36 to 44 south. High Saturday 46 to 56.

The Hope Men's Golf Association will have a muligan stew served at the Hope Country Club on Thursday, December 10 at 7 p.m. with Homer Beyerley and Royce Smith in charge of the food preparation. After supper two golfing films will be shown.

Informal Coffee

An informal morning coffee was held for Mrs. Bob Moers, Thursday, December 3 in the home of Mrs. Al Graves with Mrs. Joe Watkins as co-hostess. The group of about 20 friends enjoyed pleasant conversation.

The honoree received many nice baby gifts for the expected addition to her family. The hostesses served coffee and sweet rolls.

Gardenia Club Meets

The Gardenia Garden Club Christmas luncheon at the Heritage House December 3 set the stage for numerous parties to be held by clubs and individuals throughout the Yuletide Season. Red berries, candles, greenery, and red poinsettias were used as decorations.

Mrs. Bob Turner, club president, offered the invocation. Then, a turkey dinner was served to 13, including one new member, Mrs. Lonnie Crow, and one guest, Mrs. Lynn Harris.

Mrs. Gene Pendergraft told a charming Christmas story, "The Gold and Ivory Tablecloth." Around a white Christmas tree

California School for Dropouts

By DICK BIESER

ROSEMead, Calif. (AP) — Students from 4 to 40 attend the unusual school founded by Mary and Lester Stewart.

One of the basic courses is learning how to read. They also get lots of advice, a good bit of philosophy and considerable personal attention.

The name of the school, housed in an 11-by-60-foot store building, is unusual, too. It's called "Dropouts Anonymous."

Dropouts Anonymous has processed nearly 1,900 persons. Some have gone on to barber or beauty colleges and some are being trained by Los Angeles County as landscape architects.

Some aren't dropouts at all. They are children who need special help.

"We tell our students you should like your job better than eating," says Mrs. Stewart. "Because if you don't eat — if you diet — you probably won't get sick. But working at a job you don't like can make you desperately ill."

In 1939 Mrs. Stewart, now 43, left high school in her senior year. It was strictly a matter of money — the lack of it.

Since then she has undergone an intensive program of self-education. A housewife, she is the mother of three sons who have completed high school.

Although their own children had no trouble staying in school, she and her husband, a machinist, became interested in the children of friends who did have trouble. So two years ago they founded Dropouts Anonymous.

The Stewarts don't honor education for education's sake alone.

"Education is learning, not just getting a diploma," says Mrs. Stewart, adding: "And education doesn't mean a thing if you haven't got something in the noodle to back it up."

Approximately 60 per cent of her students needed help with their reading skill when they entered the tuition-free school.

Classes are held five nights a week from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Friday evening is what Mrs. Stewart calls "true confession night."

"We discuss our goals and ambitions," says Mrs. Stewart. "We toss in an idea and see what happens."

Three adults regularly help the Stewarts with the program, including actress Ruth Warrick. The others are Cal Edinger and Doris Patterson.

One day soon, the Stewarts hope colleges in the area will assign student teachers to the school.

Financial help comes from individuals and from women's clubs.

Engagement Announced

Miss Ruby Joyce Riggs

Mrs. Lois Riggs of Prescott in Little Rock, Her fiancée is a graduate of Emmet High School and attended Southern State College, served 6 months active military service at Camp Polk, La. and is employed with the International Paper Co. for the past two years.

The wedding will be an event of January 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the DeAnn Methodist Church. No cards will be sent.

"DEAR ABBY"

CHANGE TACTICS, LADY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: If they rented out "fathers" for special occasions, I would be their best customer. Every time my boys need their father, he's somewhere else. Our youngest son played first base with the Little League last summer and his father didn't come to see him play once! Now it's football season and one of the boys plays in the band and the other one is on the team, and every time they ask their father to go to a game, he's too tired. But let one of his friends call him up and he finds the strength to go with him. Frankly, I am getting sick and tired of being the only mother there. One of the kids asked our boys if they HAD a father. I have yelled at him, cussed him out, scolded, threatened and shamed him, but I still can't get him to go. Any suggestions?

DISGUSTED

Dear Disgusted: Try a little tenderness. You've tried everything else, and you've nothing to lose.

Dear Abby: My wife is expecting her fifth baby and, of course, we have been telling our friends the news. Our other children are 17, 15, 12, and 9. We are amazed at how many people ask us, "Was this one planned?" We consider this none of their business, but we don't know of an answer to put them in the places. Have you any suggestions?

EXPECTANT FATHER

Dear Father: Reply, "If you'll forgive my rudeness for ignoring your question, I'll forgive your rudeness for having asked it."

Dear Abby: I have two daughters in their teens, just starting to date. What worries me is their going in cars with boys. How can a mother find out what kind of a driver a boy is without embarrassing him? I have forbidden my girls to go out with some boys because of the way they drive. But what about the boys I never meet until they come for a date? I worry myself sick until the girls get home safely from a date. Don't say "Ask your daughter," because if she likes a boy she isn't going to say anything again.

Tuesday — Hamburger on bun, Pork and beans, Sliced cheese, Purple plums, Milk.

Wednesday — Tamale Pie, Candied carrots, Bread — butter, Peach cobbler, Milk.

Thursday — Chicken and dumplings, Green beans, Corn st him.

CONCERNED

Dear Concerned: There is no way to find out what kind of a driver a boy is unless you have seen him drive, or his reputation for driving has preceded him. Tell your teen-age daughters that they risk defacing, crippling injury or death when they accept dates with dangerous drivers. And if they do not get the message, your alternative is prayer.

Dear Abby: My fiancée is about two inches shorter than I am. We have never discussed the difference in height, but I have always worn flats when we were together, which made us about the same height. We are now making plans for our wedding. I would like to wear high heels, which would make me taller than he, so I asked him if he minded wearing elevated shoes just for the wedding. He said YES, he minded very much, and if I wanted him to be taller than I, I should wear flats. Will you tell me what is the right way to settle this?

TALL GIRL

Dear Girl: Since you have always worn flats with him in the past, wear them for your wedding.

Four Orphans Taken in by P.B. Family

By LEN TALIAFERRO Associated Press Writer

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The spirit of Christmas came early to this east Arkansas city when a Salvation Army family of four, living on $60 a week, invited four orphaned children to move in with them.

The biggest fear Capt. and Mrs. Bill McFarland have is that their four "new" children will decide they don't want to stay.

"We want to be able to give them the love they need and want," McFarland said. "We're afraid they may decide they don't want to stay."

McFarland invited the children to come to live with his family after the children found their 71-year-old father, a retired laborer, dead on Thanksgiving Day.

"They didn't know who to call, so they called me," McFarland said.

He said he and his wife had gotten to know the children fairly closely because they had attended Salvation Army youth programs and church services.

"I was their pastor," he said. "And most often people turn to their pastors in a time of need. They had relatives here but they didn't know how to get in touch with them right away."

McFarland refused to identify the children and would not allow them to be photographed. He would say only that the two boys were aged 11 and 14 and the girls were 15 and 16.

"We want them to understand that we took them because we love them and not for any glory," he said, adding that he was afraid all the publicity would make them want to leave. Mrs. McFarland said the children seemed to be adjusting well to being part of the family. "It isn't a burden," she said. "Both girls help in the kitchen and even the youngest boy wants to help set the table."

She said their own children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 3, loved having the four.

Asked how she felt about so suddenly doubling the size of her family, Mrs. McFarland replied, "I'm used to it. I was raised in a large family." She is a native of Seminole, Okla.

She said no specific chores had been assigned the "adopted" children yet but said there had not been time.

"We've been too busy trying to get their rooms decorated and getting their things moved in," she said.

The McFarlands live in a three-bedroom house provided by the Salvation Army. McFarland, 30, is in charge of all Salvation Army activities here.

The McFarlands said juvenile authorities had granted them temporary custody of the children and said such custody could be continued indefinitely.

"We want them to live with us for as long as they want," McFarland said. "But they are free to go any time they feel they want to."

McFarland said any financial problems were avoided because the children would receive social security benefits which would care for them until they finished school.

Local Cagers Open Saturday on Home Court

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sportswriter
Coach Billy Mitchell's Bobcats will open their home court season Saturday night when they go against Sta. Rouch and experienced Lewisville squad.
The Cats will share the bill with the Lady Cats, who are sure to have their hands full with Lewisville, the defending state champion.
A price raise has been instituted in all of 4AA this year, and all senior boys' games will be affected. The price of admission will be $4.00 and $7.50, instead of the regular $2.50 and $3.00. This is the first price hike since the early 40's.
A pep band will be on hand to help root the teams on their way, and a pair of good games is in store. Game time for the Lady Cats will be 7:00, so why not come out and support the teams.

Medlocks Team Beats Independents

Madlocks Texaco, an independent basketball team, slaughtered the Hope Independent team last night by a lopsided score of 116 to 69.
High scorer for the night was Brint Odom with 34 points, followed by Rolce Townsend with 32 and Charles Sooter with 29. Walker had 24 points for the losers and Wilson tallied 19.

UCLA Opens Defense of Cage Title

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
UCLA opens defense of its national collegiate basketball championship at Illinois tonight in a game that headlines the national program.
The contest is expected to provide an answer to just how good the Bruins are without All America Walt Hazzard, who left them through an unbeaten 30 game season a year ago.
Although Harry Combes, Illinois coach, says "we're going to be a good team," Johnny Wood, UCLA mentor, feels he has the material for another national champion. The Bruins are led by veterans Gail Goodrich and Keith Erickson and Fred Goss, a junior, who didn't play last season. They're favored to make it 31 straight despite opening on the road.
Georgia's 64-61 upset of North Carolina highlighted the comparatively slim national program Thursday on the third night of the new season.
Jimmy Pitts, with 20 points, including three free throws that put the Bulldogs ahead for good at 42-40, helped offset Bill Cunningham's stellar performance for the Tar Heels.
Vanderbilt, ranked No. 6 in The Associated Press preseason poll and favored to win the Southeastern Conference, opened with an easy 78-49 triumph over Rice. The Commodores were the only team in the preseason Top Ten to see action. They showed good balance with five men in double figures led by Roger Schurig with 14.
St. Louis wiped out a 22-7 deficit against Ohio State to whip the Buckeyes 79-70. Boston College got 22 points from John Austin and crushed Dartmouth 104-76. Maryland edged George Washington 83-80. Rhode Island downed Brown 75-65. Florida State took Virginia Military 78-72 and Manhattan overcame Co. gate 76-62.

Red Wings Take Hockey Seriously

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It could be that the Detroit Red Wings, with old pro Norm Ullman showing the way, just may be serious in their bid for the lead in the National Hockey League.
Ullman, in his 10th NHL season, sparked the Wings to a 4-2 victory over hapless Boston Thursday night, increasing Detroit's leading margin to three points and extending their unbeaten string to five straight.
Montreal stormed over Toronto 4-2 in the only other game played, moving the Canadiens into a tie with the Leafs for second place, each with 23 points.

Picking Pro Winners for the Weekend

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cleveland Browns should wrap up the Eastern Conference title in the National Football League Sunday by beating the St. Louis Cardinals in St. Louis. If the Browns win or tie, they go into the championship game with the Baltimore Colts, Dec. 27 at Cleveland.
If the Cards win, it will go down to the wire.
With the help of a 7-1-1 weekend, the old batting average moved up to 79-48-3, 51-28-5 in the NFL and 28-15-3 in the AFL. Counting this weekend's 10 games there are 24 more regular season games.
Here are the picks, all games Sunday unless otherwise indicated:
NFL
Green Bay 24, Chicago 14 — (Saturday afternoon) — Another chapter of the old bitter rivalry. Packers won 23-12 in season opener when Paul Hornung kicked three field goals. Green Bay, forced to settle for a shot at second, has won four of five but revived Bears have swept last three. Bart Star should have a big day.
Cleveland 31, St. Louis 30 — Browns by a whisker in a shoot-the-works game for the Cardinals, who must gamble with everything. Ryan will find weak link in Card defense but Browns' weak pass rush will give Charley Johnson plenty of time. Jim Bakken tied first game 33-33 with field goal in last five seconds.
Philadelphia 21, Dallas 17 — Both clubs on down grade. Cowboys still hurting in backfield, have lost three straight.
Baltimore 31, Detroit 17 — Colts on 11-game win streak with Don Shula shooting for fourth in a row over his old mates. Baltimore won in a breeze 34-0, Oct. 25. Lenny Moore with 17 touchdowns needs only three more for the league record.
Minnesota 28, New York 21 — Vikings are driving for second money and anxious to impress on first New York appearance.
Washington 28, Pittsburgh 14 — Steelers tough to predict but Redskins have won five of six and Sonny Jurgensen is back in old form with 24 td passes. Redskins should do the job but not by 30-0 this time.
AFL
Boston 24, Kansas City 14 — Patriots blitz Lenny Dawson and win on Gino Cappelletti's field goals.
San Diego 28, New York 14 — Jets on the road are a different team from Jets at home. Chargers, held to 17-17 tie in New York Oct. 3, are tuning up offense for title game with all parts healthy.
Buffalo 28, Oakland 21 — Bills

SWC Lands Four on All American List

DALLAS (AP)—The Southwest Conference landed four players—the best the league has ever done—on The Associated Press 1964 All-America college football team.
Making the elite selection were flanker back Lawrence Elkins of Baylor, linebacker Tommy Nobis of Texas, halfback Donny Anderson of Texas Tech and linebacker Ronnie Caveness of Arkansas.
The only other conferences to equal or better the SWC on the list were the Big Ten with four selections and the Southeastern Conference with five.
The Big Eight landed three, the Pacific Athletic Conference two, the Ivy League one and independents had three.
Three of the four Southwest Conference All-America honorees will play in post-season bowl games — Nobis with the Longhorns in the Orange Bowl, Caveness with the Razorbacks in the Cotton Bowl and Anderson with the Red Raiders in the Sun Bowl. Elkins had signed a professional football contract with the Houston Oilers.
The three SWC opponents in the bowls also have three men on the AP All-America. They are tackle Dan Kearley of Alabama (Orange), tackle Larry Kramer of Nebraska (Cotton) and tackle Jim Wilson of Georgia (Sun).
Thus six of the 22 All-America selections will see action in the bowl games participated in by Southwest Conference schools.
(END ADV)

Hogs Have 2 All-Americans, 5 Mentioned

NEW YORK (AP)—Ron Caveness, Arkansas' attack killer, was named today to The Associated Press All-America football team.
The 6-foot-1, 215-pound senior linebacker from Houston, Tex., racked up opposing ball carriers this season with devastation akin to dynamite.
His credentials include 157 tackles as second-ranked Arkansas went unbeaten in 10 games. Caveness also intercepted a pass for a touchdown, recovered two fumbles and threw opposing backs for 94 yards in losses.
Ken Hatfield, the elusive Razorback safety who led the nation in punt returns two years in a row, was named to the second team AP All-America.
Five other Razorbacks, including the near-incredible three tackles made honorable mention in the AP honor team. They were end Jerry Lamb, quarterback Fred Marshall and tackles Glen Ray Hines, Jim Williams and Loyd Phillips. All three tackles will be back for the 1965 Arkansas season.
"That's great!" said Arkansas coach Frank Broyles when informed of the selections.
"I was hoping Hatfield would come close," Broyles said. "I don't know anybody with a better reputation. Nobody meant more to our defensive record than he did. He led the nation in punt returns two years in a row but he was second his first time, too."
Broyles called Caveness "a real All-America—I've been saying it all along."
"In the Tulsa game we were trailing 14-0. Caveness intercepted a pass for our first touchdown, recovered a fumble to set up our second. From that moment this team played like a champion. In our victory over Texas (then No. 1 in the nation) Caveness played the greatest game I have seen a linebacker play, making 25 tackles."
"Ronnie certainly is an All-America on the field and off the field," the coach said. "He finished stronger in his senior year than any football player I've seen in a long time."
Caveness has been drafted by teams in both the professional football leagues. Hines, a junior, has been drafted as a future choice.
These seven Razorbacks also made the All-Southwest Conference first team (offense and defense) and Phillips was a shooin for the sophomore line-man of the year in the SWC.
Arkansas plays sixth-ranked Nebraska in the Cotton Bowl Game in Dallas, Tex., Jan. 1. won't find Al Davis' gang easy. The first game was a 23-20 squeaker for Buffalo in October.

NFL Takes Two More Big Players

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The National Football League has picked off two more plums — big ones — in its pocketbook battle with the American Football League and now has signed half of its first-round draft choices.
Dick Butkus and Craig Morton, two of the biggest of the big prizes, signed with NFL clubs Thursday. Butkus, a 245-pound Illinois linebacker, signed with Chicago, and Morton, California's quarterback, signed with the Dallas Cowboys. No terms were announced, but each was believed to have signed for a package of about $200,000.
Their signings gave the NFL seven of their 14 first-round choices, with two lost to the AFL. The AFL has signed four of its eight first-round choices, with three lost to the NFL.

You are hereby notified that a complaint in condemnation has heretofore been filed in the office of the Clerk of the above-named Court in an action to condemn: The estates taken for said public uses are as follows: (a) As to Tracts Nos. 209, 213, 237 and 246, the fee, simple title, subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads and pipelines, reserving however, to the owner or the owners of any interest therein, including third party leases, their heirs, successors, and assigns, all oil, gas and other minerals in and under said land with full rights of ingress and egress for exploration, development, production and removal of said oil, gas and other minerals; provided that the said oil, gas and other minerals so reserved are subordinated to the prior right of the United States to flood and submerge the land as may be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of the project and provided that any exploration or development of such rights shall be subject to Federal and State laws with respect to pollution of waters of the reservoir; provided further that the District Engineer, US Army Engineer District, Tulsa, Oklahoma, or his duly authorized representative, shall approve in furtherance of the exploration and/or development of such reserved interests, the type and location of any structures and/or appurtenances thereto now existing or to be erected or constructed in connection with such exploration and/or development; said structures and/or appurtenances thereto shall not create floatable debris. (b) As to Tract No. 237E, the perpetual right, power, privilege, and easement occasionally to overflow, flood and submerge said land and to maintain mosquito control in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Millwood Dam and Reservoir Project as authorized by the Acts of Congress approved July 24, 1946 (Public Law 526-79th Congress) and July 3, 1956 (Public Law 85-500), together with all right, title, and interest in and to the structures and improvements now situate on the land; provided that no structures for human habitation shall be constructed or maintained on the land, and provided further that no other structures shall be constructed or maintained on the land except as may be approved in writing by said representative of the United States in charge of the project; reserving however, to the landowners, their heirs, and assigns, all such rights and privileges as may be used and enjoyed without interfering with or abridging the rights and easements hereby acquired; provided further that any exploration or exploitation of oil, gas and other minerals shall be subject to Federal and State laws with respect to pollution and shall not create floatable debris the above estate is taken subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads and pipelines. (c) As to Tracts Nos. 246E-1 and 246E-2, a perpetual and assignable easement and right of way, in, on, over and across said land, for the location, construction, operation, maintenance, replacement, and/or removal of a railroad and appurtenances in connection with Millwood Reservoir Project; together with the right to trim, cut, fell and remove underbrush, obstructions, and any other vegetation, structures, or obstacles within the limits of the right of way; reserving however, to the landowners, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, all right, title, interest, and privileges as may be used and enjoyed without interfering with or abridging the rights hereby taken for said public uses; the above estate is taken subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads and pipelines. (d) As to Tract No. 266E-3, the temporary easement and right of way for a period not to exceed 31 December 1967, in, over, and across said land, for the purpose of removing borrow material and/or depositing waste material thereon in connection with the construction, operation and maintenance of Millwood Reservoir Project; together with the right to trim, cut, fell and remove timber, underbrush and other vegetation, structures, and any other obstructions or obstacles; reserving, however, to the owners of the said land, their heirs, administrators, executors, successors, and assigns, all such rights and privileges as may be used and enjoyed without interfering with or abridging the rights and easements hereby acquired; the above estate is taken subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads and pipelines. (e) As to Tracts Nos. 266E-2 and 266E-5, a perpetual and assignable easement and right of way in, on, over and across said land, for the location, construction, operation, maintenance, replacement, and/or removal of roads and highways and appurtenances thereto; together with the right to trim, cut, fell and remove underbrush, obstructions, and other vegetation, structures, or obstacles within the limits of the right of way; reserving, however, to the landowners, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, all right, title, interest, and privileges as may be used and enjoyed without interfering with or abridging the rights hereby acquired by the Government; the above estate is taken subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads and pipelines. In the property described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof for public use in connection with the construction, maintenance and operation of Millwood Dam and Reservoir, Little River, Arkansas, and for such other uses as may be authorized by Congress or by Executive Order. The authority for the taking is the Act of Congress approved February 26, 1931, (46 Stat. 1421, 40 U.S.C. 258a), and Acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof; and under the further authority of the Acts of Congress approved April 24, 1888 (25 Stat. 94, 33 U.S.C. 591) and March 1, 1917 (39 Stat. 948, 33 U.S.C. 701), which Acts authorize the acquisition of land for flood control projects, the Acts of Congress approved July 24, 1946 (Public Law 526-79th Congress) and July 3, 1956 (Public Law 85-500) which Acts authorize the construction of the Millwood Dam and Reservoir, Little River, Arkansas; and the Act of Congress approved December 31, 1963 (Public Law 88-257) which Act appropriated funds for such purpose. You are further notified that if you have any objection or defense to the taking of your property, you are required to serve upon plaintiff's attorney at the address herein designated within five days after the last date of publication of Notice an answer identifying the property in which you claim to have an interest, stating the nature and extent of the interest claimed and stating all your objections and defenses to the taking of your property. A failure to so serve an answer shall constitute a consent to the taking and to the authority of the court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the just compensation and shall constitute a waiver of all defenses and objections not so presented. You are further notified that if you have no objection or defense to the taking, you may serve upon plaintiff's attorney a notice of appearance designating the property in which you claim to be interested, and thereafter you shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting the said property. You are further notified that at the trial of the issue of just compensation whether or not you have answered or served a notice of appearance, you may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for the property in which you have any interest and you may share in the distribution of the award of compensation. Charles M. Conway United States Attorney By E. A. Riddle Asst. U. S. TESTING OUT THE BUG

The primary object of the Apollo mission to the moon will be to land two of the three astronauts on the surface. These astronauts will leave the mother ship via a Lunar Excursion Module (LEM), or as it is known to the astronauts, "the bug." The LEM crew will perform various tasks and experiments and then will blast LEM's cab off the moon and back to the Apollo for the return trip home.

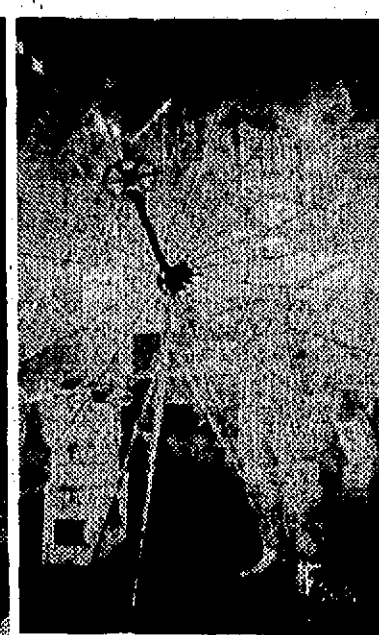

Suited engineer embarks from full-scale, all-metal, mock-up Lunar Excursion Module (LEM), the part of the Apollo spacecraft that will land on the moon.

Charles Smythe, wearing a Gemini-type spacesuit, demonstrates the accessibility of equipment for scientific experiments which come in packages. These equipment compartments are mounted on the outside of LEM.

Interior view of the Lunar Excursion Module shows the maze of equipment and instruments the astronauts will have at their disposal. The design of the vehicle is compatible with the astronauts' requirements while they are based on the moon's surface.

One of the functions of the astronauts on the moon will be to erect this S-band antenna for radio transmission back to the orbiting command ship.

Old Miss and State Game on Nat'l TV

By JAMES SAGGUS Associated Press Writer OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi State and Mississippi, tough football teams that found the season full of frustrations, will clash here Saturday in a traditional game that erases disappointments for the winner. Injuries, unexpected weaknesses and bad luck combined has hurt both squads much of the season and both are hoping for a victory to compensate for their setbacks. The annual game, delayed this year to fit into the national television schedule, is expected to draw a capacity crowd of 35,000. It will be telecast by NBC starting at 2:00 p.m., EST. The game shares top billing with the hurricane-delayed night clash between Sugar Bowl-bound Louisiana State, 7-1-1, and Florida, 6-3, at Baton Rouge, La. LSU will meet Syracuse in the Sugar Bowl. Louisiana State faces a crippled Florida squad. Florida coach Ray Graves said senior Tom Shannon would start at quarterback in place of ankle-injured Steve Spurrier. Graves said Spurrier would see only limited action. The LSU-Florida game had been scheduled for Oct. 3 but was postponed because of Hurricane Hilda.

Caveness on the AP's All American Team

By TED SMITS Associated Press Sports Editor NEW YORK (AP) — John Huarte, Bob Timberlake, Donny Anderson and Gale Sayers comprise the offensive backfield of the 1964 Associated Press All-America football team named today. Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus, the lone holdover, heads a defense averaging 219 pounds per man on the squad which reflects the wholesale revival of a platoon game this season. For the first time since 1952, separate units, a 22-man first team, have been selected on the recommendations of the sports writers and broadcasters who made up the eight regional boards. All games through Nov. 28 were taken into account. Huarte, Heisman Trophy winner as college player of the year, was the quarterback who changed Notre Dame from a 2-7 to a 9-1 performer and left a flock of school records in his wake. His most notable season marks are 3,069 yards in total offense and 114 pass completions for 2,062 yards and 16 touchdowns. Timberlake, quarterbacked Michigan to the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl berth but he's so good a runner he was elected at a halfback slot in his conference. The Michigan senior rushed for 574 yards, passed for 807 and scored 80 points. By means of pass receptions and kick runbacks as well as sprints from scrimmage junior Anderson from Texas Tech—a first round futures pick in both pro drafts—accounted for 1,710 yards. He also punts. Kansas' Sayers, the whirlwind of the Plains, is one of the most exciting runners in Big Eight history and leaves a league career rushing record of 2,875 yards behind him. The closest of some hectic position contests on offense was at end where Florida State's Fred Biletnikoff and Baylor's Lawrence Elkins got the nod over Jack Snow of Notre Dame and Karl Noonan of Iowa. Biletnikoff, who operated at flanker back and split end with equal ease besides being a sound blocker and kick runback specialist, caught 57 passes for 987 yards and 11 touchdowns this season.

Mississippi, the pre-season choice to win the national collegiate championship, found the going rough early in the year and has a 5-3-1 record. Only a thumping 30-0 victory over Tennessee three weeks ago preserved the Rebel string of bowl invitations when it won a spot in the Bluebonnet Bowl against Tulsa at Houston Dec. 19. State, a Cinderella team with a 6-2-2 mark in 1963, had hoped to show even more improvement, but a series of injuries made a walking, wounded corps of the team's key players. State will take a 3-6 record into the contest.

season. Elkins, first man picked in the AFL draft, grabbed 50 aeriols for 851 yards at Baylor. Jim Wilson of Georgia and Nebraska's Larry Kramer, a combined 480 pounds of tackles who were futures drafts last year, are on the interior offensive line with guards Tommy Nobis of Texas and Bill Fisk of Southern California plus Syracuse's Pat Killelin.

Fisk finished a standout season by starring in the 20-17 upset over Notre Dame. Ace Trojan ball carrier Mike Garrett calls Fisk "one of the most underrated blocking linemen in the country." The quickness with which the New York Giants drafted Auburn's Tucker Frederickson is testimony of the fullback-safety's prowess. Although he led Auburn in rushing, receiving, scoring and kickoff returns, Frederickson was rated even higher stopping foes and permitted only one pass completion in the zone he covered all season. He personally killed four enemy drives with his tackling. Clarence Williams of Washington State, Ohio State's Arnold Chonko and Cosmo Iacavazzi of Princeton are the other defensive backs.

Teamed with Butkus in the highly competitive linebacker-guard spots are Tennessee's Steve DeLong and Pat Caveness of Arkansas. The trio shaded Marty Schottenheimer of Pitt, Penn State's Glen Ressler and Carl McAdams of Oklahoma. Dan Kearley of national champion Alabama is teamed with John Van Sickle, Iowa state, at defensive tackle. Offensive backs Roger Staubach of Navy and Jimmy Stille of Auburn, All-America choices a year ago, did not repeat because of their injury-plagued seasons. Staubach was hindered by a severe leg injury and Stille's hurt shoulder forced his move from quarterback to half. Jerry Rhone of Tulsa, Craig Morton of California, Boo Berry of Oregon and Bob Schweikert of Virginia Tech make up the second team offensive backfield.

Peron Sent Right Back to Madrid

By EMILIO MOYA MADRID, Spain (AP) — Former Argentine Dictator Juan D. Peron flew back to Spain today and an uncertain reception after a short-lived attempt to return to South America. Peron's airliner was diverted from Madrid to Sevilla. Informed sources said the switch was made on orders of the Spanish government — and probably at Peron's request — so he would not be exposed to the more than 100 Spanish and foreign newsmen waiting for him at Madrid's Barajas Airport. Officials in Madrid said they understood that Peron would be allowed to return to Spain "temporarily, until a definite decision is reached on his case." The Brazilian government ordered the 69-year-old exile flown back to Spain Wednesday night on the same Iberia airliner that had carried him to Brazil from Madrid early Wednesday. He had planned to go on to Paraguay, to wait there until the time was ripe for him to return to Argentina. The Brazilian government said in a communique: "Complying with the request of Argentina the Brazilian government agreed to halt in Rio de Janeiro the trip which Mr. Juan Domingo Peron was making." The Uruguayan government also announced that Peron would not be allowed to land in Montevideo, where he had planned to catch a plane to Paraguay. Sources close to President Alfredo Stroessner of Paraguay said Peron would not be allowed to land there either. Whether he would be permitted to resume his life of exile in Spain was uncertain. The Spanish government said his return would have to be negotiated. Spanish officials said Peron's departure constituted "a clear violation" of the condition under which the government granted him asylum in 1960 — that he would not engage publicly in politics. Peron had promised to return this year to Argentina, where an estimated 20 to 30 per cent of the nation's 10 million voters still support him. He ruled Argentina from 1946 until 1955 when a military revolt overthrew him. He went to Paraguay, Panama, Venezuela, the Dominican Republic and finally to Spain. The Brazilian government detained Peron from the moment of his arrival until he took off Wednesday night. Peron spent the day at the military section of the Galeao International Airport. A Brazilian air force officer said Peron talked very little but appeared "well disposed." He was unsmiling as he started back to Europe. Peron reportedly asked the Brazilian government for asylum. If he did, his forced departure showed that Brazilian President Humberto Castello Franco rejected the request.

Thought For The Day
Let thy mind's sweetness have its operation upon thy body, thy clothes, and thy habitation. - Herbert said it.

Calendar Of Events
The Anna P. Strong Club members are urged to remember that the meeting will be held tonight at 6 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. A. Hill.

We have just four more Sundays to get each member of the Church enrolled in a class in Loneke Baptist Sunday School. We are looking for you Sunday. The superintendent, Mrs. Ella Robinson and the teachers are ready to be of help in any way possible. Our motto: "Study." Rev. Walter White, Pastor. 11-9-ft

Singing Union
The Singing Union Division "B" met with the St. Paul Baptist Church, Emmet, on the 5th Sunday in November with President C. G. Carmichael, presiding.

Each singing group was represented. Mr. W.V. Rutherford gave the meaning of the hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Mrs. Ella Mitchell, the meaning of the hymn, "Brighten The Corner Where You Are." Both were enlightening and interesting.

A period of silence and prayer was observed in memory of Mrs. Charles English who passed away recently.

We were graced with the presence of Dr. J.C. Oliver, president of Arkansas Baptist College. He was, as always, enjoyed by the all.

The next singing union will meet with the Loneke Baptist Church, Hope, the 5th Sunday in January, 1965.

The Candlelight Service which was held at Loneke Sunday night, November 29, was very successful. Reports are still coming in. Miss Willie Mae Davenport, Chairman; Mrs. A. S. Walker, president.

Funeral service for Mrs. Charlie English will be held at the Garrett Chapel Baptist Church, Sunday, December 6th, at 2:30 p.m. Hicks Funeral Home, Inc., in charge.

Television and Radio
By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) - The National Broadcasting Co., in a sudden decision Tuesday dropped most of its regular afternoon television programming for live coverage of the Senate committee investigating the Bobby Baker case.

The witness was insurance man Don Reynolds who was not saying much that was new to newspaper readers. But the testimony, in Reynolds' excessively polite Southern drawl, concerning strange business deals in high places plus the peppery wrangling between Democratic and Republican senators was both fascinating and disillusioning.

The full treatment as served up by NBC was infinitely more illuminating than the highlights of the day's testimony chosen for a special report by CBS in the late afternoon.

Also highly illuminating was NBC's news special Tuesday night titled "Viet Nam and what narrator Chet Huntley called "a mad war." Color film dramatically illustrated the difference between the plush, easy life in Saigon, and the Viet Cong terror nearby in rice paddies and villages where each day men are ambushed and die as the guerrillas strike - and disappear.

The Hour was well done and quite shocking in its frank look at the situation.

Diane Lennon, whose marriage and retirement from show business reduced the singing Lennon sisters from a quartet to a trio, has changed her mind. She'll be back as a Lawrence Welk regular from Dec. 12 on.

Who Steals My Name . . .

By Clay Richards

XXIII
I took a cab out to the neighborhood where Tip Wright lived. It was a lower middle-class section and the building in which he lived wasn't anything special. There was a candy store on the corner. I went in and ordered an egg cream. The old man behind the counter served it and took my money.

"Say," I said suddenly, as if the thought had just occurred to me. "This must be the neighborhood where Tip Wright lives. Do you know him?"

"That no - goodnik," the old man said scornfully. "Everybody knows him. Since he was a little one."

"I only knew him slightly several years ago," I said. "It seems to me that I did hear that he got into some scrape and was sent to prison."

"When he was seven years old he was stealing candy from this store. Yeah, he went to prison. Twice. And each time he comes out and lives off his mama. That's a man?"

For lack of anything else to do at the moment, I went back to the post office building. Porter had already gotten the duplicates of the photograph, and they were going out to the branch offices. And there was a TWX for me from George Dundy in Chicago:

"Jackman admits stealing checks and cashing them. Doesn't know where his friend stayed while here or where he went. George Dundy."

I got a classified directory and started calling hotels and asking if an Emery Richards was registered. That's the way I spent my afternoon. The only thing I accomplished was to run up a phone bill for the post office. I didn't even realize the day was over until Larry Porter stuck his head into the office I was using.

"Working all night?" he asked.

"I feel as if I already had," I said. "Is it that time of day?"

"It is. What are you going to do now?"

"Several years ago I formed the habit of eating every evening and I can't kick it. After that I may go to a club for a couple of hours."

"Like to have company?"

"Sure, but won't your wife object?"

"Never bothered to collect one. I've given my all to the United States Postal Service."

"I'll mention it to Ben Franklin the next time I go to," I told him. "Shall we be off?"

The Tomato turned out to be a small night club, dimly lighted, with a five-piece combo playing Dixieland. We left our hats with the hat-check girl, a pretty little brunette. We found a table over in a dark corner of the room. I looked around as we sat down, but there wasn't any sign of Richard Emery.

"You might at least give me a script," he said.

"I don't have one myself. This is strictly an ad lib show."

"And me with no talent," he said mournfully.

The waiter arrived and looked at us questioning. Larry ordered scotch and soda, I decided on rye and water.

"Has Tip been around tonight?" I asked the waiter before he could leave.

"Tip Wright? Haven't seen him tonight." He turned and left.

One of his friends? Larry asked.

ALC Adjourns With No Cash Solution Yet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Legislative Council adjourned Thursday for a weekend rest before tackling the task of gear- ing $163 million in budget requests to an expected $157 million in general revenues.

The council goes back to work at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

A source in the council said the big problem next week will be decided on one of three courses to reach a policy agreement:

-Cut budgets to the size of expected revenues.

-Seek new revenues.

-Okay the budgets and let the revenue stabilization act effect proportionate cuts in each budget, should they become necessary.

The council has deferred action on all budgets with major claims on the general revenue fund.

The source said once policy is determined, the council can handle the remaining budget requests quickly.
